

China Connection© 2012

This report provides a 611 page compendium of the products and services from over 70 high-tech dental firms and laboratories based in China, Korea & Taiwan.

All of these companies exhibited at the 2012 China South Dental International Expo meeting in Guangzhou, China in March.

Each company's contact information is listed along with color pictures of its products. There are 50 categories of products ranging from simple disposables to curing lights to dental labs and more.

Whether you are looking for an offshore supplier or simply want to understand your future competition, you will find this an extremely valuable marketing tool.
